

My name is James Saunders, and I am disgusted by the disgraceful act that was done during the super bowl halftime show with Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake. I was enjoying the game with my 7 year old son, and then the halftime show began, and my son had to see such a disgrasful act. This is unbelievable, and to think that the world had to see this. What is this showing my child, that men can go around demoralizing women this way? Please enough is enough. I really hope this will not be swept under the rug. Who ever is responsible must be accountable.

Sincerly
James Saunders
